The Biblical Foundation of God's Creative Power in Finances

Understanding God's Creative Power

At the heart of Charles Capps's teachings is the biblical assertion that God's spoken word is creative. Genesis 1 vividly illustrates how God created the universe through His words: "God said, let there be light," and light appeared. Capps emphasizes that this same creative power is available to believers today, not just for the physical universe but also for their financial circumstances.

Key biblical verses supporting this concept include:

- Genesis 1:3 ? "And God said, Let there be light: and there was light."
- Romans 4:17 ? "...God... calleth those things which be not as though they were."
- Mark 11:23 ? "Whosoever shall say unto this mountain... shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith."

Capps teaches that by aligning one's words with God's Word, believers tap into the divine creative power that can manifest financial provisions.

The Power of Words and Faith

Charles Capps strongly advocates the principle that words are containers of creative power. The believer's words, when spoken in faith, can release God's power to manifest financial breakthroughs. Conversely, negative or doubt-filled words can hinder or block divine provision.

Principles Capps emphasizes include:

- Speaking God's Word over your finances.
- Using faith-filled declarations to create financial abundance.
- Avoiding negative confessions that oppose God's promises.

He encourages believers to "call things that be not as though they were," aligning their speech with God's promises to see the financial situation change.
