are frequently addressed. Here is a list of common questions along with detailed answer explanations.

1. Who are the main characters in Brave New World?

Answer:

The main characters include:

- Bernard Marx: An Alpha-Plus who feels alienated due to his physical and psychological differences from others. He questions the societal norms of the World State.
- John "the Savage": A man raised outside the World State on the Savage Reservation. He symbolizes natural human instincts and is a critic of the society.

It contrasts sharply with the highly controlled, sterile society of the World State. The Reservation allows the novel to explore themes of natural human instincts, religion, and traditional values, which are suppressed in the society of the World State. John the Savage's upbringing here makes him a pivotal character, as he embodies the clash between natural humanity and engineered society.

Answer:

Conditioning in Brave New World involves psychological and physical methods that ensure citizens accept their roles and societal rules without question. Techniques include:

This conditioning eliminates individuality and dissent, creating a stable, compliant society. It raises ethical questions about free will and the cost of societal stability.

The ending is tragic and highlights the consequences of a society obsessed with stability and superficial happiness. John the Savage, unable to reconcile his natural instincts with the society's synthetic pleasures, chooses to isolate himself.
